

Declaration of impartiality

In this declaration, the management of ConformiTICS Lab Ltd. commits itself to impartiality.

ConformiTICS Lab Ltd. performs its conformity assessment activities impartially and in compliance with the requirements of the ISO / IEC 17025:2017 standard

To ensure impartiality, ConformiTICS Lab Ltd.:

- declares its impartiality as conformity assessment body in order to have confidence in the issued documents,
- is responsible for the impartiality of its conformity assessment activities and does not allow it to be pressured by commercial, financial, or others to relinquish its impartiality,
- has independence and impartiality from its clients and other parties in relation to the conformity assessment activity, the managing director exercises the employer's rights,
- oversees, analyses and documents conflicts of interest arising from conformity assessment decisions, including conflicts of interest arising from other existing relationships with the client,
- does not conduct any activities if a relationship unacceptably compromises impartiality,
- does not conduct a product testing for which a client has been consulted,
- requires its employees to report on any situation that comes to their notice that may constitute a conflict of interest for them or for ConformiTICS Lab Ltd.

Budapest, 08.05.2020

.....
Ágoston Lóth
Managing Director